Branch Meeting last Friday of the month

NEWSLETTER APRIL 2019

Good morning everyone, and once again welcome to the start of the cooler weather! Don't forget our BBQ, if the weather gets too uncomfortable, we will go to the Red Cross Hall in Portwood Road rather than Crockett Park. 12 o'clock start at Red Cross! I hope you all had a relaxing Easter, with oodles of chocolate eggs to keep you company. Of course I don't eat chocolate, MUCH!! . Enjoy your April meeting,
Doug.

Membership

Welcome to new member, Audrey Smythe. We hope you enjoy the friendship and camaraderie of our club

There was a good turn-out for the April Dine-out. Thirty seven of us went to the Redcliffe Tavern and enjoyed a meal from the Friday menu. The Tavern puts on a very good selection of Seniors meals, and with a good choice of food, and the best of friendly conversation with other members, it's no wonder the Redcliffe Tavern is such a popular venue!

DINE-OUTS Barb Emery & Barb Hornsby

Friday 10th May our dine-out will be at the Moreton Bay Boat Club Scarborough. The usual time of 11.30. for 12 noon. We hope to see many of you there.
The Two Barbs

This month our BBQ was a rather hectic affair, as there was another large group of seniors sharing the tables at Crockett Park. We had almost sixty members ourselves in attendance, but we managed to share the amenities without any problems.

It was a beautiful day, with the sun shining, a light breeze, and some very good company. I am sure that all those who went to our BBQ had a very good day.

Your roving reporter.
